

Dena McFerren

Executive Director

Dena's career began in business-to-business sales. In 2000, she transitioned to professional real estate sales focusing on southwest Dallas county. Throughout her career, she has built and maintained many lasting business and personal relationships in or near the Duncanville area and across Dallas, and through these relationships she brings great benefits to DEF. Her passion and love for Duncanville as well as the school district is one of her greatest strengths. Dena and her husband are both graduates of Duncanville High School where their daughter will also soon be graduating.
